

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 04.19.19

We had a hard time picking a report to share with you this week – between helping a man catch a bat that was hiding in his cupboards, reuniting a dog who was sleeping on someone else's porch with its owner, and helping a woman get a fox - who had made it's home under her shed – out, we were on cuteness overload. However, we are going with this one. I am sure many of us have been here at one point in our life:

Restaurant employees called 911 after finding a 6-year-old child who was left in the store without his parents.

Upon arriving I spoke with employees who saw the child's father leave in a silver car with several other children. I spoke with the 6-year-old boy who said his first name was XXXXX but he did not know his last name or his father's name. As I was speaking with the boy attempting to gather more information, his father frantically returned to the restaurant. I spoke with the father and he said he had other children with him at the restaurant and when he went to leave, he did not realize that his son was in the bathroom.
