

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF BRAD WISE

FRIDAY UPDATE: 05.05.23

Scams

04.28 The victim reported that she had used the website oliviasbassethoundpuppies.com to attempt to purchase a puppy. She reported that she had been communicating with a male named Nicholas Roberson to arrange the sale. She advised me that she had transferred $800 using Zelle to pay for the puppy on 04/25/23. She stated that she had then made further payment for the puppy by purchasing apple gift cards for the business with a total value of $3800 on 04/26/23 and 04/27/23. She reported that the business was believed to be located in Montana and that the dog was to be shipped to her and arrive on 04/27/23. She reported that the puppy had not arrived on 04/27/23 and that when she contacted the business they had requested she pay an additional $1000 prior to them shipping the dog. She reported that at this time she became concerned that the entire purchase of the puppy had been fraudulent and reported the incident to Wells Fargo where she banks and had used Zelle for the initial transaction.

04.29 The victim stated that she received a call from someone who claimed to be Xcel Energy. The phone number 651-229-2548 came back not on file and was most likely a scam call. The caller requested her name, address and the phone number that was on file with the company. The caller stated that they would be over to the house in the next thirty minutes to take the meter from the house. She ended the phone call and was concerned someone would show up to her house. On arrival, I talked with her and advised them that the call was most likely a scam call. She had already called Xcel Energy to verify that the company did not call them about their meter.

05.01 I made contact with the victim who stated she tried to purchase a dog online through a website called Craig's Dachshund, www.craigsdachshundhome.com yesterday. When she wired $500 via cash app Zelle she never received a confirmation of her purchase. She was not able to make contact with the vendor who identify as Kayla Larry. Kayla used the email Kayfromthebayy@aol.com. I told her to contact her bank and see if they could help her.

05.01 The victim had been communicating with a person on Instagram and Snapchat that he believed was a female named Lexxy from the United Kingdom. He reported that he had provided "Lexxy" with a picture of himself completely undressed that included his face. He stated that "Lexxy" subsequently threatened to disseminate images of him on social media if he did not provide her with $350. He stated that "Lexxy" had also threatened to make posts on social media claiming that he had sexually assaulted a child if he failed to pay her. He reported that "Lexxy" had used the Instagram account: LEXXYMARRRY224 and the Snapchat account: KYLE232932 to communicate with him. He stated that no money had been exchanged.

05.02 The victim stated that he went onto his Cabela's account and saw that he was missing points and there was an order for a Ruger-57 pistol cartridge in 5.7x28mm. He sent me a photograph of the Ruger pistol and verified with Cabela's that the gun was ordered under his account. He stated that the order was supposed to be delivered to a Bass Pro Shop in Illinois. He also stated that the order was supposed to be picked up by a Marcus XXXX, with a residence in Chicago. The order was placed on 04/28/2023. He stated he then went into the Bass Pro Shop in Rogers, MN and they were able to confirm the purchase and then cancel the order.

05.02 The victim explained that early in April, 2023, he was looking on Facebook Marketplace for a vehicle to buy his wife. He saw an ad for a 1969 Chevrolet Camaro SS on ebay Motors. This vehicle was listed by S. Collins for $24,400. He clicked on the ad and was brought to the ebay site. He contacted S. Collins via email, shannon73cns@gmail.com, and told her he was interested in the vehicle. He proceeded with purchasing the vehicle. S. Collins wanted a private wire money transfer and they did not use the ebay Motors money transfer process. The victim went to his bank and wired $24,400 to her bank. The vehicle was never delivered and S. Collins is no longer emailing. He now believes he was swindled.

05.03 The victim is 15 years old. He told me that someone on Snapchat posing to be a woman sent him nude photographs and he sent some back. He was unsure how many he sent, and he said the photos had his whole body in them including his face, and the nude photos included his privates. The person who he was also communicating with on Instagram, was threatening him saying that unless they were given $500, they would send the pictures to his friends and family. He also said they made a group chat that had the nude photos, and they were inviting his friends to join the group chat. I advised him not to send them any money as it would not help the situation. He confirmed that he did not know who this person was and met them through social media. The Snapchat username for the person is ALEXIABLISS94 and the Instagram username is ALEXIA.MARY_.
