

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF JAMES STUART

FRIDAY UPDATE: 10.11.19

Just because some weeks you need to hear good things 😊 A couple deputies this week had an opportunity to help callers a little more than what is typically routine.

- An 86-year-old woman called 911 because she was in Oak Grove and needed to get home to St. Paul but her phone was dying and she needed directions. The deputy located her and wrote out the directions for her.
- A family reported a loud ongoing noise that woke them up in the middle of the night. The deputy arrived and determined the valve for the toilet was not shut off, and it was allowing a small amount of water through at a very high pressure which was causing the noise. The deputy fixed the toilet.
