

ANOKA COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE SHERIFF BRAD WISE

FRIDAY UPDATE: 12.01.23

Scams

11.24 The caller stated that his brother fell for a scam. His brother was contacted by a person claiming to be with the FBI and sent them money. I was able to talk to the brother and he stated that on Nov 15th, he was contacted by a male named Jason Smith and said he was a special agent with the FBI. He stated the male told him that he was investigating a child pornography case after a teenaged girl was recovered during an investigation. He stated the male told him that they got his phone number from the girls phone and that she sent him underage pornographic images. He stated that the male demanded that he send them $5000 in restitution fees. He stated that he used his Applepay and sent them $1100 that day. He stated that they called again this morning from 509-715-0814 and he gave them another $150. I advised him that this was a scam since restitution is ordered by a court and the FBI does not ask for that prior to a conviction. He stated that he did block the numbers from his phone.

11.24 The victim advised that she had recently got a new cell phone. When she the new phone, she advised that she had lost all of her login information. She googled how to get your login information for Facebook and she found a phone number online. She advised that she called the number and was connected with an individual who claimed to work for Facebook. She advised that the individual proceeded to obtain her bank debit card information and purchased Bitcoin and other various items totaling $2000. She advised that the suspect then told her that he could guarantee that she would get her money back if she sent him another $500 gift card from Walmart. The victim realized that it was probably a scam and canceled all of her cards.

11.27 The victim responded to a FB Messenger ad for a Peloton Bike for sale. The seller was her sister's neighbor, so she was not originally concerned. After negotiating a sale for $700, she worked out the details via text message. She sent the seller two separate payments; $450 through Paypal and $250 through Venmo. The process was difficult as several payments were blocked and she needed to try multiple times to complete the transaction. She became suspicious of the sale and had her brother-in-law reach out to his neighbor directly. She then learned that this FB account was hacked and she was not actually communicating with the seller. She has a monetary loss of $700.

11.27 The victim was scammed out of $3900 in gift cards. He stated that his computer locked up and he then started getting notifications and phone calls on how to unlock it. He was advised to purchase gift cards and Walmart for Apple and he also purchased American Express cards. He stated that the two names that were given from the scammers for Amy Charles and Daniel Walker and phone number 833-758-1059. The victim had already been in contact with his credit card company who advised him to make a police report.
